CODE OF CONDUCT

By registering for this competition, you are agreeing to abide by the USA Shooting Code of Conduct both on and off the range complex for the duration of the event. As a participant, you are representing our sport and organization. Providing an example of good conduct, appearance and sportsmanship is paramount. The Code of Conduct is available in the Competition Entry Office and on the USAS website.

ELIGIBILITY:

All USA Shooting competitors must have a current USAS membership before the start of competition. Without a current membership you will not be able to take a shot in the competition. Please ensure that your membership is current BEFORE attendance.

The match will be open to international guests as well. All international athletes should submit a copy of the picture page of their passport with their entry form.

INTERNATIONAL COMPETITORS

International competitors are welcome to shoot this competition, provided they are members of their home federation. To register for this event, simply email your entry form to Jared.Esquivel@usashooting.org along with a copy of the picture page of your passport. Pre-registration is required, and entry fees may be paid upon check-in at the event.

International competitors must obtain a firearm permit to import a shotgun into the United States. USA Shooting will assist in obtaining the required import permit. Please download the BATFE 6NIA form from the USA Shooting website. Complete the form, including signature, and email it to alex.szablewski@usashooting.org.

TEAM SELECTION:

This match will serve as Part 1 of the Olympic Trial Selection Process. This event will also serve as Selection for New Delhi, India World Cup – March 15 – 26, 2020. If you are interested in finding out more about our Selection Procedures, please reference the Policies & Procedures posted online under the Resources tab. You can also click here.

SQUADDING:

Squads for PET days will be at random for Skeet and Trap. Squads will not be posted until registration is finalized. For the first course of fire, squads will be separated Men and Women and will be based on scores from 2019 Spring Selection. For the second course of fire, squads be separated Men and Women will be squadded High to Low based on scores from first course of fire.

REGISTRATION:

1. All competitors must be current members of USA Shooting.
2. The USA Shooting classification system will be used. It is the competitor's responsibility to confirm their age and classification upon check in. If you do not state your classification and/or category correctly you will not be eligible for that particular award. There will be no changes after competitor check-in and awards will not be redistributed.
3. Competitors must check in, verify their entry information and pick up their competitor number in person or be represented by their team official.
4. Check-in for all events will be done at the clubhouse, not later than noon the day prior to the first match day in which the athlete competes. If you cannot make it on time, please contact us at 719-866-4615 or by email at Jared.Esquivel@usashooting.org.
5. Entries may be confirmed online or by calling the Competitions Division at 719-866-4615.
6. Registration for those not previously entered will stop at noon on the official training day.
7. All competitors should have a PTO score on file with USA Shooting to compete in this match. Alternate evidence of international event operations knowledge and proficiency will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. Should the number of entries received exceed range capacity; slots will be awarded based on an individual's highest PTO score (in the last 12 months) on record with USA Shooting.

8. Online registration is available at www.usashooting.org – Member Sign-In – Events – 2019 USAS Shotgun Fall Selection - ENTER. This will take you through to the registration page, followed by the payment page. Please call 719-866-4615 if you have difficulties registering. Please note we will accept entries up to range capacity.
