

The National Training Center Shooting Club (NTCSC)

c/o USA Shooting (USAS), 1 Olympic Plaza, Colorado Springs, CO 80909

Terms and Conditions of Membership:

- ✓ Applicants must be a current member of USA Shooting (USAS) member (annual adult $40 and annual junior $30)
- ✓ To use USA Shooting ranges (Olympic Shooting Center at the Olympic Training Center, or International Shotgun Ranges at Ft Carson), you must be a member of the NTCSC and USA Shooting, or participating in a NTCSC, USA Shooting or United States Olympic Committee (USOC) event. THE CLUB DOES NOT HAVE GUEST PRIVLEDGES. The USOC, or the US Army at Fort Carson, owns all of the range facilities, and therefore, NTCSC members enjoy the use of the facilities at the pleasure of the owners. As a NTCSC member, member's use of the facilities is at the discretion of the owners, and is limited to the space and time available as provided by the owners. Members must follow any NTCSC, USA Shooting, USOC or US Army rules, policies and procedures relating to range safety, access to the OTC, and use of the ranges, or membership in the NTCSC may be revoked. NTCSC policies and procedures include those of the Discipline Directors for Rifle, Pistol or Shotgun.
- ✓ Olympic Training Center badges are ONLY required for members using USA Shooting ranges for Club activities.
- ✓ The Secretary/Treasurer will approve all memberships. All Club dues will be refunded if application is denied.
- ✓ Membership in the Junior Program (NTCSC Juniors) will be administered by the Junior Program Lead.
- ✓ Rifle/Pistol Membership: Adult and Juniors (not members of the Junior Program) are $75 per year. Effective January 1, 2019
- ✓ Shotgun Membership: Adult and Junior will be $25 per year (ammo/targets available for purchase at shotgun range). Effective January 1, 2019
- ✓ No fees will be collected when athletes come to shoot. One time-membership fee per year.
