Below are samples of the more common kinds of bequests, and some bequest language. We always recommend that you carefully review the terms of your will with a professional trained in handling trusts and estates.

General Bequests are assets left to people or charitable organizations, made by designating a specific dollar amount, a particular asset or a fixed percentage of your estate.

General bequest sample language:

"I give, devise, and bequeath to USA Shooting, Tax ID 84-1263863, the sum of $_____ (or a description of the specific asset, or a percent of the estate), for the benefit of USA Shooting and its general purposes. Robert Mitchell, Executive Director of USA Shooting, may be contacted at 1 Olympic Plaza, Colorado Springs, CO 80909."

Residuary (or Remainder) Bequests designate an individual or charitable organization to receive the portion of your assets remaining after other terms of the will have been satisfied.

Residuary bequest sample language:

"All the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, I give to USA Shooting, Tax ID 84-1263863, for its general purposes. Robert Mitchell, Executive Director of USA Shooting, may be contacted at 1 Olympic Plaza, Colorado Springs, CO 80909."

Contingency Bequests allow you to leave a portion of your estate to USA Shooting if your named beneficiary does not survive you.

Contingency bequest sample language:

"I devise and bequeath the residue of the property, real and personal and wherever situated, owned by me at my death, to (name of beneficiary), if (she/he) survives me. If (name of beneficiary) does not survive me, I devise and bequeath my residuary estate to USA Shooting, Tax ID 84-1263863, for its general purposes. Robert Mitchell, Executive Director of USA Shooting, may be contacted at 1 Olympic Plaza, Colorado Springs, CO 80909."

Should you wish to direct your bequest towards a certain program or purpose (within the mission of USA Shooting), our staff would be happy to discuss those options with you.
