2012 Highlights: Won eight medals at the Army Strong/SCPT Challenge in Ft. Benning and walked away with the overall top shooter while sweeping the collegiate division... Two top-six finishes at the ACU Collegiate Clay Target Championships...Two of the six NJSOC finalists were South Georgia Youth Shooting Club Members with Will Hinton and Tyler Lirio making it to the finals. Hinton swept the finals and secured the overall winner. Lirio won the gold for J2. Woody Harris won gold for J3. Justin Brooks took bronze in the overall double trap division... At the National Scholastic Clay Target Championships, the club walked away with gold and silver, Senior Gold and Silver and Doubles Gold...The season concluded with Lirio’s invitation to attend a USA Camp held in Puebla, Mexico due to his performance at the Fall Selection Match.

Top Emerging Olympic-PG Athletes: Robert Kyle Johnson — Trainer in Tucson, Member of National Junior Olympic Team.
Luis “Laz” Gloria — Placed third overall in Men’s Skeet and was awarded a membership on the National Junior Team.

Chris Webster — 2012 Inductee to USA Shooting Junior Olympic Shotgun Team for Double Trap; 2012 USA Double bronze medallist; 2012 Georgia JO J1 gold medalist (Trap); 2012 Georgia JQ Double Trap gold medalist.
CFC Coaches: The club has several certified coaches. Mike Simpson serves as the head coach and has recently been named a USA Shooting Junior National Coach. The following are certified coaches as well: Gloria Simpson, Emma Moore, Robert Barfield, William Brooks, and Mike Webster.

CONTACT: South Georgia Youth Shooting and Bridge Creek Clays 370 Durce Rd. Hartsfield, GA 31756 229-941-5071. Director: Mike Simpson Contact Email: erriarmom@yahoo.com

2012 Highlights: Hosted seven USA Shooting registered Trap tournaments. These tournaments were open to both Juniors (who shot at reduced rates) and non-Juniors.

Buckeye International
Marengo, Ohio

2012 Highlights: Buckeye International Monthly 100, Newark, Ohio - 1st Place; April, 2012 - Ohio State Junior Olympic Trap/Drop Trap Championship, Newark, Ohio - 1st Place; May, 2012 - Michigan State Junior Olympic Trap/Skeet Championship, Clinton, Michigan - 1st Place; May, 2012 - Olymic Team Shootout Trials, Tucson, Arizona - 1st Place; June, 2012 - Buckeye International Monthly 100, Newark, Ohio - 1st Place; July, 2012 - Buckeye International Monthly 100, Newark, Ohio - 1st Place; July, 2012 - Shotgun National Junior Olympic Championships, Colorado Springs (2nd) - 3rd Place; July, 2012 - Shotgun National Junior Olympic Championships, Colorado Springs (Double Trap)- 2nd Place; September, 2012 - USA Fall Selection Match, Kerrville, Texas - 1st Place.

CONTACT: Rebekah Altd (Trap) — Competed in National Junior Olympic Shotgun Championship, Women J2, 4th Place.

CFC Coaches: Tim Young — Level 3, USA Shooting Coach and NRA National Coach Development Staff; Jim Eyster — Level 3, USA Shooting Coach and NRA National Coach Development Staff; Scott Fedor — Level 1, USA Shooting Coach; Hal Kae — 25 time NSSSA International Skeet All-American and is a licensed NRA Shotgun Coach, also an active competitor in both International Skeet and Olympic Trap.